

Your public access center offers you and your organization a world of opportunity!

WPMC is your non-profit, independent technology center and a resource for the entire community that:

- provides video training and access to television production equipment;
- offers programming opportunities for cablecast on the 3 PEG channels: Channels 3, 13, and 15 on RCN, Channels 9, 10, and 22 on Comcast, Channel 43, 45, and 47 on Verizon;
- promotes community-based media empowerment on a first-come, first-served, non-discriminatory basis to anyone living or working in Woburn.

At WPMC, you'll find resources that let you:

- post important messages to the Community Bulletin Board;
- see television coverage of meetings or events from around the community;

- share information-learn skills through WPMC training classes, and meet others in your community who share similar interests.

WPMC is dedicated to providing access to telecommunications resources and to actively promote popular communication that will build community spirit.
